

DOMAINE MAISON

Cheverny rosé

The Cheverny rosé of Domaine Maison is a majority blend of Pinot Noir with a Gamay.

Grapes are selected according to their ripeness.

A cold pre-fermentation is made in vats before in order to preserve the cold and fruity side of aromas.

Its robe will seduce you with its tender pink appearance.

Its powerful nose reveal greedy hint of strawberries and raspberries. Its full-bodied mouth offers a final impression on the sweet.

To be served cold as an aperitif or as an accompaniment of lettuces and barbecues.
